

SAN DIEGO COUNTY
GUN OWNERS

CCW CARRYING GUIDE

A List of Where You CAN and CAN'T Carry

YES! YOU CAN CARRY HERE!

-  Health care facilities
-  Public transit and mass transit facilities
-  Public gatherings
-  Private property that you own or do not own
-  Retail stores (like Wal-Mart, Target, clothing stores, grocery stores, hardware stores, malls, movie theatres, etc; with out without a "No Guns" sign posted.
-  Driving past a school on a public street
-  National parks
-  Native american reservations (NOT casinos)

NO! YOU CAN'T CARRY HERE!

-  Places where liquor is sold
-  Public parks and athletic facilities
-  Public property controlled by the State Department of Parks and Recreation or Department of Fish and Wildlife
-  Gambling establishments
-  Stadiums and arenas
-  Public libraries
-  Amusement parks
-  Zoos and museums
-  PETCO, Del Mar Fairgrounds, Sports Area, North Island Credit UNION Amphitheatre
-  Post Offices
-  All Airport Property
-  Federal, state, or city government buildings like courthouses, city halls, law enforcement offices, elected official offices.
-  All property owned by the County of San Diegos like parks, rec centers, and County Administration Building.
-  School property
-  Military bases
-  A political protest of any kind and polling stations for voting in elections

We are not lawyers and this is not legal advice. This list is not comprehensive and is meant to be used as a general guide for California CCW holders in San Diego County. Please be sure to know and follow all applicable local, state, and federal laws and regulations. If you need an attorney, please contact John Dillon at Dillon Law Group APC at (760) 642-7150.

WWW.SDCGO.ORG